Axe Vale & District Conservation Society

Registered charity No. 266682

Membership Application Form

Our main aim is to stimulate public interest in the local environment to minimise threats to the landscape and wildlife in the catchment areas of the rivers Axe, Yarty, Coly and Lim. We organise walks, work parties, estuary cleaning, bird watching trips in and around the area, and are actively involved in, and provide funding for, works to improve public access to the countryside including the Seaton Wetlands. You can help by becoming a member (Minimum £10 per household per annum) and joining in our activities if you would like to:
